Countries

1. United Kingdom

A UK education opens doors, wherever you go in the world building on an extraordinary heritage of new discoveries. From the world-recognised universities to the innovative teaching approach and the leading minds who deliver it, It has what you need to reach your potential. The UK has been the preferred choice for some of the most important minds in history. One in four world leaders has studied in the UK, so if you're dreaming of achieving big things, you can be sure you're in the right place in the UK.

Find out what a UK Education can do for you

■ A higher standard of education

The UK's academic reputation is world-renowned. Built on a heritage that is now centuries old, our approach to education applies the very latest learning theory through universities that routinely top international tables. Our innovative teaching methods produce successful, versatile graduates who are sought-after by employers around the world.

■ Post-study work opportunities

The UK's Graduate Route welcomes international students to apply to stay in the UK and work, or look for work, upon graduation. International students who have successfully completed an undergraduate or master's degree can apply to stay in the UK for up to two years after their studies. PhD graduates can apply to stay for up to three years. This is a fantastic opportunity for international students who want to take their next steps into employment in the UK. Requirements

■ Access World Leading research

The UK is a global powerhouse of science and research. With so many universities at the cutting edge of global discoveries and emerging technology, our students graduate with insights and experience that are in high demand around the world. UK universities continue to be globally recognised for their commitment to research. UK is ranked second in the world for science and research, with 54 per cent of our output considered world-leading. That's more than the US, Canada, Germany, Japan and Brazil.

2 CANADA

Canada has become a booming hub for international students whose dreams include remaining in the country in which they complete their studies. It is no longer an overlooked global destination to earn a degree, ranked among the best. Canada is an increasingly popular option for students who seek and require a less expensive alternative to studying internationally than they might find in the US. Canadian universities are now providing equally prestigious degrees as those in the US, often at a more affordable cost.

Why choose Canada?

-Pathway to Permanent Residency

If you have completed your studies at an eligible Canadian post-secondary institution (Designated Learning Institute) which can be a post-secondary educational institution (university, college or CEGEP), in an eligible program with a completion of a full-time study program of at least eight months duration, you are eligible for a Post-Graduation Work Permit. Canada also offers a direct path to permanent citizenship via the Canadian Experience Class—an option many international students seek and boasts an education system. International students studying in Canada may apply for Canadian permanent resident status while studying in Canada or after completing their studies, provided they meet the requirements of the Canadian immigration program under which they apply.

▪ Access to Financial Aids and Loans

The Canadian government offers a few financial aid options for international students including Government of Canada International Scholarships and the Canada Student Loan program. Whereas scholarships are typically awarded based on academic merit or a specific ability, bursaries are available for students who meet specific financial criteria. In terms of student loans, there are two main types of lenders and loans: federal and private. A federal student loan is one provided by the government such as through the Canada Student Loan program. A private student loan is one provided by a privately funded organization. If you are unable to obtain enough funding to pay for your education, student loans can be a primary or supplementary option.

▪ World Class Ranked Institutions

There are almost 100 universities in Canada, five of which—the University of Toronto, McGill University, University of British Columbia, Université de Montréal, and University of Alberta—are ranked among the top 100 in the world.

▪ Safety in Canada

Canada is widely regarded as one of the safest places in the world to live. It has ranked as one of the top ten places to live in the world for over twenty years. It has a tolerant and Non-discriminatory Society.

3 EUROPE

European countries, and their universities, are of course all very different – in terms of language, lifestyle and living costs. Europe is the cradle to some of the most important languages in the world. European higher education institutions offer a wide variety of study programs in different languages, such as in English, French, German, or Polish. You may even have the opportunity to study in a bilingual program and become fluent in two languages!

Discover everything you need to know to start and complete your studies as an international student in Poland, Austria, Georgia, Norway, Netherlands, Hungary, etc

Why study in Europe?

• Free to Low tuition Fees

Experience a world-class higher education in Europe and benefit from an extensive choice of bachelor's and master's courses, doctoral study programmes. Education in Europe is highly subsidized through taxes. Europeans enjoy either no tuition fees or very affordable fees for higher education programs. International students are usually charged either full tuition fees, no fees or moderate fees depending on the program, institution and country.

• CULTURAL DIVERSITY

Explore diverse languages and cultures in a welcoming, social environment.

• Internationally Recognized Degrees

Gain international experience, skills and knowledge!

• Work opportunities

Access to work permit of 20 hours per week

• Flexible Admission intake and deadlines

Most of the European schools have multiple intake

• Family Sponsorship

As a non-EU student, you can bring your family members for a stay of up to 90 days if they apply for a Tourist Schengen Visa. For stays longer than 90 days, family members must apply for a residence permit. Before your family members can apply for a residence permit (also called 'Family Visa'), you need to have a residence permit yourself

IMMIGRATION PATHWAYS

Mapstat Consults offers expertise in Canadian immigration-related procedures and policies. We maintain a high rate of success, and consequently, our seamless experience in immigration processes have won the trust of both people who are planning to immigrate to Canada, and companies looking for potential employees. We always keep up to speed with the most recent changes and updates in Canadian immigration procedures and laws, and keep our clients well informed throughout the process, and adjust the course of our actions accordingly if needed. There are over 80 different Canadian immigration programs. Our experts, as accurately as possible, will assess your chances of participating: in the various pathways available.

■ EXPRESS ENTRY

Since 2015, immigration for professionals and skilled immigrants to Canada has been managed through the Express Entry system, which now has a processing time of up to 6 months. It is an online selection system for candidates who qualify for immigration through one of the three federal economic immigration classes:

Federal skilled worker

Federal skilled Trades

Canadian Experience class

The system rank candidates in the pool using a points-based system called the Comprehensive Ranking System (CRS). It selects the highest-ranking candidates from the pool and invite them to apply for permanent residence. In addition to three federal immigration classes, almost all Canadian provinces and territories have their own Provincial Express Entry stream.

■ PROVINCIAL NOMINATION PROGRAM,

PNPs or Provincial Nominee Programs are programs that have been designed by provincial governments in cooperation with Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship Canada (IRCC) to facilitate the process of settling, finding work, and adapting in specific provinces in Canada for specific groups of foreign nationals. Within these programs, each province decides based on its requirements what groups of foreign nationals would do better and help boost the local economy. Provincial Nominee Programs offer a great opportunity for employers to find workers and nominate people with the right skills to get permanent resident status. Provinces and territories including Ontario, Alberta, Saskatchewan, Manitoba, British Columbia and New Brunswick can grant a Provincial Nomination to a candidate from the Express Entry pool. Provincial Nomination gives the candidate 600 additional CRS points, therefore guaranteeing the ITA for PR. Our expert immigration consultants at Mapstat Consults are here to assist you a number of provinces in order to receive an ITA. If you think you have a better chance of immigrating to a specific province, we will be happy to evaluate your chances.

■ FAMILY CLASS SPONSORSHIP

Canada recognizes the importance of family and spousal support for its citizens and residents, therefore, the Family Class Immigration and Spousal Sponsorship procedures are simplified and applicants have fewer requirements compared to other streams of immigration. IRCC does not limit the annual number of applications. A Canadian citizen or a permanent resident living in Canada, of at least 18 years of age, who is able to prove that they are not receiving social assistance (for reasons other than disability) and able to provide for the basic needs of the person they are sponsoring are eligible to apply for the following routes and invite family members via;

- Spousal sponsorship
- Dependents
- Child sponsorship
- Supervisa

■ LMIA OPEN WORK PERMIT

A work permit is a document issued by Immigration, Refugees, and Citizenship Canada (IRCC) and, in most cases, allows you to work exclusively for the employer that is indicated in the document and perform a specific job. A work permit is also restricted to a specific location and time of work, or, in certain cases, You may be eligible for an open work permit if you've been included in an application for permanent residence. Getting a Labour Market Impact Assessment (LMIA) is an important step in getting a temporary work permit in Canada. It must be properly filed with Employment and Social Development Canada (ESDC)/Service Canada, certifying that a business can hire a temporary worker. An LMIA verifies that there is a need for a temporary worker and that no Canadian applicants are available to do the job, giving priority to Canadian residents over foreign nationals. If an employer hires a temporary worker through the Temporary Foreign Worker Program (TFWP), Overall, the process of getting a work permit – beginning with the application, getting an LMIA from your future employer, and getting the actual documents may take a couple of weeks to a couple of months except you're applying to LMIA -Exempt roles which may qualify for International Mobility Programs. We have specific roles available for Truck Drivers, Housekeepers, Line cooks etc ... use Assessment Form.

■ Religious work permit

Are you a Religious worker, bishop, cardinal, chaplain, evangelist, granthi, imam, minister, pastor, priest, rabbi. Let's help you take your ministry to Canada. This route applies to foreign nationals whose work in Canada is of a religious nature. The foreign national must have an LMIA-exempt offer of employment number as part of their application. The primary duties of the temporary worker should reflect a particular religious objective. For example, the worker may be expected to: provide religious instruction, promote a particular faith, advance the spiritual teachings of a religious faith, maintain the doctrines and spiritual observances on which those teachings are based. Let's guide you through the process.

CAREGIVER PATHWAY

Caregivers and Healthcare workers who have received a positive eligibility assessment decision are eligible for an open work permit under Labour Market Impact Assessment (LMIA) exemption code A70. We have openings for foreign applicants who are qualified and experienced professionals. There are multiple roles ranging from Live in Caregiver to Regular caregiver jobs. Each job has its basic requirements and benefits. Caregivers are eligible to apply for permanent residence through the Live-in Caregiver Program after 2 years of work experience in the program. ## BUSINESS CLASS IMMIGRATION

Canada welcomes successful business people who are seeking new opportunities and challenges. The Business Immigration Program is designed to encourage and facilitate the admission of these individuals. Both the federal and provincial/territorial governments welcome business immigrants and offer services to help immigrants start a business and settle in Canada. The Immigration, Refugees Protections Act and Regulations define "business immigration" as two possible immigration programs:

✓ SELF-EMPLOYED PERSONS

✓ Start-up Visa

In short, Self-employed Persons is a direct path towards permanent residence in Canada for self-employed athletes and individuals that specialize in artistic and cultural fields and meet the program's requirements. For your application to be eligible for processing, you must have at least 35 points from the overall 100 points.

For a start-up Visa you must :

- Have received a Letter of Support from a designated entity and incorporated in Canada.
- Meet the language requirements
- Have sufficient settlement funds (transferable and available funds, free of debts or other obligations and excluding any investment made by a designated entity into their business)
